It focuses on improving emotional intelligence and client counseling. The ABFP designation program is a unique program that improves financial planning advice through a thorough understanding of psychological theories of behavioral finance.

The ABFP designation is the first advisor-focused behavioral financial designation from an accredited college or university. Individuals must complete an eight-week course. The course is equivalent to 28 hours of continuing education credit.

Item 3: Disciplinary Information¹

There are no legal or disciplinary events material to the evaluation of Mr. Christopher.

¹ Note: Our firm may, under certain circumstances, rebut the presumption that a disciplinary event is material. If an event is immaterial, we are not required to disclose it. When we review a legal or disciplinary event involving the advisor to determine whether it is appropriate to rebut the presumption of materiality, we consider all of the following factors: (1) the proximity of advisor to the advisory function; (2) the nature of the infraction that led to the disciplinary event; (3) the severity of the disciplinary sanction; and (4) the time elapsed since the date of the disciplinary event. If we conclude that the materiality presumption has been overcome, we prepare and maintain a file memorandum of our determination in our records. We follow SEC rule 204-2(a)(14)(iii) and similar state rules.

Item 4: Other Business Activities

Mr. Christopher is a registered representative and licensed insurance agent of NewEdge Securities, Inc., a member of FINRA/SIPC. He may offer products and receive normal and customary commissions as a result of these transactions. A conflict of interest may arise as these commissionable securities sales may create an incentive to recommend products based on the compensation earned. To mitigate this potential conflict, Mr. Christopher, as a fiduciary, will act in the client's best interest.
