2023: Accredited Investment Fiduciary

Accredited Investment Fiduciary® (AIF®) is a designation obtained through the Center for Fiduciary Studies. This designation represents a thorough knowledge of and ability to apply fiduciary practices. Prerequisites for the AIF® include a point-based threshold on a combination of education, relevant industry experience and/or professional development. Once the prerequisites are met, one must successfully complete the AIF course and pass a proctored exam. To maintain this designation, the designee must ascribe to a professional code of ethics, maintain current contact information, complete 6 hours of continuing education each year, and pay annual dues.

Item 3: Disciplinary Information¹

There are no legal or disciplinary events material to the evaluation of Mr. Murray.

¹ Note: Our firm may, under certain circumstances, rebut the presumption that a disciplinary event is material. If an event is immaterial, we are not required to disclose it. When we review a legal or disciplinary event involving the advisor to determine whether it is appropriate to rebut the presumption of materiality, we consider all of the following factors: (1) the proximity of advisor to the advisory function; (2) the nature of the infraction that led to the disciplinary event; (3) the severity of the disciplinary sanction; and (4) the time elapsed since the date of the disciplinary event. If we conclude that the materiality presumption has been overcome, we prepare and maintain a file memorandum of our determination in our records. We follow SEC rule 204-2(a)(14)(iii) and similar state rules.

Item 4: Other Business Activities

Mr. Murray is a registered representative of NewEdge Securities, Inc., a member of FINRA/SIPC and a licensed insurance agent. He may offer products and receive normal and customary commissions as a result of these transactions. A conflict of interest may arise as these commissionable securities sales may create an incentive to recommend products based on the compensation earned. To mitigate this potential conflict, Mr. Murray, as a fiduciary, will act in the client's best interest.
